

Gerard Hart – Director of Policy and Protection

The PVG Scheme

Developing a vision for 2020

A STRATEGIC PVG REVIEW

A PVG Scheme

- Delivers safety, fairness and proportionality
- Works for partners and customers
- Financially sustainable
- For the 21st C
- Uses digital technology

BACKGROUND

- Bichard Inquiry Report
- Planned in the 'noughties' - Live in 2011
- Scheme membership (997,000)
- Barring (3,420)

WHY REVIEW NOW?

- 5 year point reached
- Political commitment
- Intelligence about necessary fixes
- Channel Shift
- 4 Work Strands

MODERNISATION

- Key learning and change in the last 5 years
- Safeguarding vs Right to a private life
- Significant features are onerous
- Customers want information faster

TECHNICAL

- Cumbersome
- Paper based
- Analogue in a digital world
- Design new system to meet customer needs

FINANCIAL

- The 'as is' is unsustainable
- The fee structure is not compatible with having a more modern delivery system
- Products shaping fees
- Fee options

YOUR VIEWS

- Proposed approach
- Timescales
- Benefits and Risks
- Next steps

DISCUSSION POINTS

- Are the founding policy principles right for now?
- Ongoing monitoring – is it proportionate?
- Fee structure?
- Proposed approach?
- Any unidentified risks?