

Protecting the public through professional behaviours

6th Annual Regulation Conference

27th November 2013
Thistle Hotel, Glasgow

DRAFT PROGRAMME

0900 // Registration, Refreshments and Networking

Fringe Event - 'Meet the regulators'

0930

Welcome and introductions

Lorna Jack, Chief Executive, Law Society of Scotland

0940

Keynote speech

Alex Neil, Cabinet Secretary for Health and Wellbeing

1000

The role of regulation in protecting the public

Jim Martin, Scottish Public Services Ombudsman

1020

Questions from the floor

1030

Refreshments, Networking and Exhibition Stands

1045

Francis, Berwick, Keogh – the aftermath: The impact on professional regulation

Peter Watkin-Jones, Partner, Eversheds

1130

Questions from the floor

1150

Parallel Session 1

1240

Lunch, Networking and Exhibition Stands

1340

Parallel Session 2

1430

Parallel Session 3

1520

Safety in health and social care – the impact of human factors

Captain Hugh Sheils, Tall Poppy Consultancy

1550

Final thoughts for the day

Lorna Jack, Chief Executive, Law Society of Scotland

1600

Close

SHSCEvents

Regulation@shscevents.co.uk

0131 275 6443/7748

Protecting the public through professional behaviours

6th Annual Regulation Conference

PARALLEL SESSIONS

1150-1240 Parallel Session 1

DH response to the Francis Report

Gavin Larner, Director of Professional Standards, Department of Health

Promoting professionalism through regulation

Panel discussion hosted by Niall Dickson, Chief Executive, General Medical Council

Continuing fitness to practise

Yasmin Becker, Assistant Director Revalidation, Nursing and Midwifery Council
Tim Walker, Chief Executive and Registrar, General Osteopathic Council

Involving service users and carers in the regulation of education and training

Michael Guthrie, Director of Policy and Standards, Health and Care Professions Council
Nina Roberts, Adviser, Workforce Development and Planning, Scottish Social Services Council
Mary Wingrave, Programme Leader in Childhood Practice, University of Glasgow

1340-1430 Parallel Session 2

DH response to the Francis Report

Gavin Larner, Director of Professional Standards, Department of Health

The role of the regulator in promoting professionalism

Bob Nicholls, Chair, General Pharmaceutical Council
Fiona Browne, Head of Professional Standards, General Osteopathic Council

HealthCare Support Workers – implementing an employer-led system of regulation in Scotland

David Black, Vocational Learning Manager, NHS Ayrshire and Arran
Imran Sharif, Senior Learning and Education Advisor, NHS Greater Glasgow and Clyde

Risk and regulation: Understanding risk through regulation research

Claire Herbert, Head of Policy (Continuing Assurance & Revalidation), General Dental Council,
Guy Rubin, Research Manager, General Dental Council

1430-1520 Parallel Session 3

Promoting professionalism through regulation

Panel discussion hosted by Niall Dickson, Chief Executive, General Medical Council

Understanding public protection – when is the fitness to practise of a health and care professional impaired?

Kelly Holder, Director of Fitness to Practise, Health and Care Professions Council

Professional regulation: the European dimension

Kate Ling, NHS Confederation

Learning lessons from misconduct – prevention is better than cure?

Douglas Bilton, Professional Standards Authority